Senior Research Assistant / Research Assistant I (Ref: 2601042)
Academy for Educational Development and Innovation

Project Title: The Elderly and Artificial Intelligence: Comparing Senior Citizens' AI Literacy Acquisition in Hong Kong

[Appointment Period: 7 months]

The appointee will be responsible for assisting the principal investigator and co-investigators in a research project titled "The Elderly and Artificial Intelligence: Comparing Senior Citizens' AI Literacy Acquisition in Hong Kong". This study aims at exploring what are the different user experiences for Hong Kong senior citizens in acquiring AI literacy through the use of different American and Chinese AI tools, and what are the key factors associated with elderly people's AI literacy acquisition in Hong Kong.

The appointee will assist the qualitative and quantitative data collection and analysis, literature review, student helper coordination; and carrying out any other duties as assigned by the principal investigator and co-investigators. Applicants for Senior Research Assistant should have a master's degree in social sciences (e.g., education, social work, sociology, psychology, media studies), human-computer interaction (HCI), information studies or a related discipline, plus at least one year of full-time post-master's work experience, or a doctoral degree. Applicants for Research Assistant I should have a bachelor's degree in social sciences (e.g., education, social work, sociology, psychology, media studies), human-computer interaction (HCI), information studies or a related discipline. Prior research experience in relevant disciplines is also preferred. They are expected to have relevant research skills (e.g., quantitative survey, qualitative interviews, and analysis skills). Experience in social works for local elderly centres are highly preferred.

The appointee should be creative, self-motivated, responsible, organized, as well as good at interpersonal communication in Cantonese and English. The appointment will be for a period of 7 months.

For further enquiries about the post, please contact Dr Liu Jindong at ljindong@eduhk.hk.

Applicants who have responded to the previous advertisement (Ref: 2600742; 2600860) for the same position are under consideration and need not re-apply.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include contract-end gratuity, leave, medical and dental benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV on or before 4 December 2026. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes.
