

Prof. Greer JOHNSON

Griffith University, Australia

Email: g.johnson@griffith.edu.au

Dr Greer Johnson is Professor in Education and Director of the Griffith Institute for Educational Research whose focus is Leadership, Learning and Change. Greer is currently completing the project Principals as Literacy Leaders with Indigenous Communities, with Professor Neil Dempster. She has been the recipient of multiple grants from the Australian Research Council for research that involved teachers professional development, post-school transitions for at risk students, and workplace learning and older workers. She has developed a methodology comprising Narrative Inquiry and Critical Discourse Analysis for researching in disadvantaged contexts.

