

Mr Vincent DURNAN

University School of Nashville, USA

Email: vdurnan@usn.org

Vince Durnan has been Director of University School of Nashville since 2000. A graduate of Williams College, where he was a Tyng Scholar, he also holds a Master in Education degree from Harvard and is writing his dissertation for an Ed. D. in Leadership Policy and Education from Peabody College at Vanderbilt University.

Before coming to USN, Mr Durnan was Academic Dean at Suffield Academy, where he also taught history and economics. He has also been a history teacher and coach at Hawaii Preparatory Academy, Kingswood-Oxford School, and Harvard-Westlake School. For seven years he was a Reader and Faculty Consultant for the Advanced Placement Economics Exam.

Mr Durnan serves on the Board of Centerstone, the Hermitage, and Nashville Prep Charter School. He chairs the Division II Committee for the Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association. He is a member of Rotary Club International. He participated in Leadership Nashville in 2002-2003 and has served recently on the Board of the Red Cross, Oasis Center, Tennessee Repertory Theatre, and the Tennessee Association of Independent Schools. Mr Durnan has both participated in and presented at the NAIS Institute for New Heads, and he contributed a chapter for the NAIS Head's Handbook, published in 2011.

