The screenshot displays the website for the Centre for Language in Education (CLE) at The Education University of Hong Kong (EdUHK). The header features the university's logo and name in both Chinese and English. Below the header is a navigation menu with links to Home, About us, Language Enhancement Programmes, ASLLC, Activities, News and Events, Projects, University's Language Policy, Contact Us, and a highlighted 'Language' link. The main content area is titled 'CENTRE FOR LANGUAGE IN EDUCATION' and features three large photographs of students. The first photo shows a group of five students holding a large sign that reads 'TEDxEdUHK 2018' with the subtitle 'x = independently organized TED event'. The second photo shows a group of six students holding a sign that says 'Welcome TEDx EdUHK!'. The third photo shows three students holding a green sign that reads 'TEDxEdUHK Life-long Learning'. On the right side of the website, there is a vertical sidebar with four buttons: 'Activity Booking', 'Workshop Evaluation', 'Consultation Evaluation', and 'Forms & Policy'.

What can learners do in the ASLLC?

Learners can

- get individual face-to-face help from a language advisor
- access language learning software, e-learning, reference books & materials
- join a workshop or a language activity
- watch DVDs in English,

Putonghua and other languages

- read newspapers and magazines
- play board games

International Tutors

To enrich cultural sensitivity and create an English-rich learning environment at campus, the International Tutors Scheme was introduced since September 2014.

The international tutors will facilitate English language exchanges through a variety of subjects and learning activities, such as organizing workshops and language activities.

More info could be found in our Facebook

A Warm Reminder

For language enhancement:

develop language proficiency for personal and professional needs

language proficiency is a slow
building-up process

You have to put effort
along the way
