

Course Title	:	Walking with the Elderly and Disabled 無障礙同行
Course Code	:	CSL1023
Department	:	Education Policy and Leadership

Synopsis

This course aims at promoting citizenship through connecting an increased understanding of local communities with the implementation of a service project specially planned for the elderly and/or disabled. The course also aims at promoting skills, knowledge, and experiences in caring for and understanding about the elderly and/or disabled. Through contacts between the students and the elderly and/or disabled, students will obtain an opportunity for mutual respect and understanding. To achieve these objectives, this course will provide students experience-based activities like organizing local tours. Through organising and participating in such activities, students will develop leadership skills and caring attitude. Students will first learn concepts on service learning, theories of the elderly and disabled. Students will then work with the partner NGOs and accompany the elderly and/or disabled to visit different parts of Hong Kong as their tour guides.
