

Course Title	:	Implementation of Whole Person Development through Drama 透過戲劇實踐全人教育
Course Code	:	CSL1030
Department	:	Curriculum and Instruction

Synopsis

The course aims to enhance the whole person development of the participants through drama activities and related services, including five perspectives: creative thinking skills, communication skills, collaboration skills, independent and critical thinking skills, and intrapersonal skills. This course comprehends a systematic and practical approach, through especially designed drama activities and service/experiential learning from real life, to enhance participants' self-awareness and to develop their individual potential in the five abilities aforementioned.