

Course Title	:	Practice Engagement of Special Educational Needs 特殊教育需要的實踐參與
Course Code	:	CSL2040
Department	:	Special Education and Counselling

Synopsis

This course provides an opportunity for students to understand the different special and diverse learning needs of children. Students will also study related intervention strategies through interactive service-learning activities in special education settings. In addition to regular tutorials, students will learn how to provide learning support to children with special needs in an assigned school. The course will help students understand the importance of reflection and ways of supporting children with special needs effectively. Students are expected to learn autonomously, to collaborate with their fellows and to think critically about the teaching and learning issues involved for children with special educational needs.
