

Course Title	:	Canto-Pop: Mirror of Hong Kong's Immediate History 粵語流行音樂：追尋香港歷史近貌的鏡子
Course Code	:	GEG1013
Department	:	IELL

Synopsis

This course provides a platform through which students can acquire understanding of conceptions, international and local documents of human rights, and how human rights can be protected through international and local organizations. Students will be required to analyze human rights issues, particularly pertinent to the Hong Kong context, from local, national and global perspectives. They may explore human rights issues in schools. The course may provide opportunity for students to interact with local NGOs on human rights for the nurturing of skills and attitudes for the upholding of human rights.
