

THE ACADEMIC BOARD

The Academic Board is the chief academic forum of the University, with the President as the Chairperson. The Board comprises members from the Faculties, academic departments, and academic-support units as well as student members. The main function of the Academic Board is to formulate academic policies and oversee all academic matters of the University. To realise this function, an infrastructure of boards and committees is set up to deal with different academic decisions within the University.

THE TERMS OF REFERENCE

Subject to the provisions of The Education University of Hong Kong Ordinance, and to the availability of funds provided by the Council, the Academic Board shall have the following powers and duties:

1. to direct, plan, co-ordinate, develop, oversee, regulate and promote all teaching, programmes of study, research and other academic work in the University, and to formulate policies accordingly;
2. to advise the Council on matters which are relevant to the academic and educational work of the University
3. to formulate and review procedures for monitoring the academic standards of the programmes;
4. to receive reports from, and to give guidance and directions to its Committees and other academic units/structures of the University;
5. to make recommendations to the Council on any major changes to the academic structure of the University;

6. to make regulations for the admission and registration of students;
7. to make regulations for examinations and assessments;
8. to approve the conferment of award of certificates, diplomas and degrees, except degrees of honoris causa;
9. to regulate the university, conditions and mode of scholarships, bursaries, prizes and other similar awards;
10. to make regulations for the welfare and discipline of students;
11. to terminate students on academic or disciplinary grounds;
12. to deprive, for reasons which the Academic Board shall deem to be good cause, persons of any academic awards conferred by the University, and/or to revoke any certification granted;
13. to co-opt such additional members to serve on the Academic Board as may be required;
14. to develop its rules and procedures for the conduct of its functions;
15. to advise the Council on matters referred to it;
16. to exercise such other powers and perform other duties as the Council may authorise or require; and
17. to report to the Council on a regular basis.
