Are you looking for new challenges and the opportunity to make a difference? Join a growing team of internationally renowned scholars at The Hong Kong Institute of Education.

The Institute is a publicly funded self-accrediting institution offering a full range of doctoral, master and bachelors degrees, as well as postgraduate diplomas and other professional development programmes to over 7,000 pre-service students and serving teachers. In the light of the Hong Kong SAR Government’s decision to support the Institute to become an Education-focused, multidisciplinary institution with strong research capacity, and in line with the Institute’s plan to become a University of Education, we are steadily strengthening our capacity in all aspects.

The Institute aspires to become the leading research-based agent of change in the Asia Pacific region. Our vision is clearly focused on innovative, world-class research and development that contributes to solving problems and addressing public policy issues locally and globally. Collaboration, intellectual freedom and innovation are our hallmark values. We are seeking professionals excited by the prospect of contributing their expertise to the development of a leading multidisciplinary institution in the heart of East Asia.

The Institute invites applications for the following post:

Assistant Professor (Ref: AsstProf/SEC/0210)

Department of Special Education and Counselling

The appointee will undertake teaching at undergraduate and graduate levels; research duties in the areas of special education and/or inclusive education; and field experience supervision in local schools.

Applicants should possess a doctoral degree in special education/inclusive education or in a closely related area, and have good local knowledge of teaching in this area; hold a specialization in at least one of the following areas: communication difficulties, speech and language disabilities, sensory disabilities, or gifted education. Those with good track record in research are particularly encouraged to apply. Applicants with the ability to teach in Cantonese are highly desirable and evidence of relevant published research and scholarship will be distinct advantage.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term gratuity-bearing contract. Fringe benefits include leave, medical and dental benefits and, where applicable, housing benefits.

Application forms can be obtained from (a) http://www.ied.edu.hk/hro/applyfor.htm; (b) the Human Resources Office, 3/F, Administration Building, The Hong Kong Institute of Education, 10 Lo Ping Road, Tai Po, New Territories, Hong Kong; or (c) Town Centre, Level 2, The Long Beach, 8 Hoi Fai Road, Tai Kok Tsui, Kowloon, Hong Kong. The completed application form, together with full curriculum vitae, should be sent to the Human Resources Office by email to hro@ied.edu.hk or by fax to (852) 2948 6005 or by post on or before 13 March 2010. Please quote the reference number of the position in the application and mark “Strictly Confidential – Job Application” on the envelope.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted.

Further information about the Institute is available at http://www.ied.edu.hk

The HKIEd is an Equal Opportunities Employer