

Giving Students an Organizer

At the completion of each course, I will show students a concept map to summarize what they have learnt in the course. Students can use this as an organizer of the course, which is served as a conclusion and consolidation.

Course Summary for “Professional Teachers in Classroom, School and Community”

