

Dr. Byung-kee Huh

Professor, Korea National University of Education

Korea

E-mail: bk huh@knue.ac.kr

Professor Huh received Ph.D. degree from Seoul National University in Korea with a dissertation on the problem of fairness in Korean educational policies. Before working as professor, he has joined various organizations including a training center for principal preparation, teachers' association, educational research institute, national research funding agency, and trading company.

He has a particular interest in such research topics as leadership for shaping school culture, aesthetic qualities of educational leadership, leadership as being and its development, humanistic aspects of educational organization, fundamental principles of educational administration, and philosophy of educational administration. He is continually trying to approach such research themes and has authored articles and books related to them.