

Bio

Dr. Huen Yu

Associate Professor, The Hong Kong Institute of Education
Hong Kong

E-mail: hyu@ied.edu.hk

Dr. YU Huen is Associate Professor of the Department of Educational Policy and Administration of The Hong Kong Institute of Education. In the Department, he is at present the Convenor of Educational Management and Leadership Group.

Dr. YU received his Ph.D. Degree and M.Ed. Degree from The Ontario Institute for Studies in Education (OISE) of the University of Toronto. His major research areas include school management, principal leadership, middle management, school-based management and educational change. He has been actively participating in conducting educational research such as Hong Kong principals' transformational leadership and teachers' commitment to change, school culture, challenges of school middle managers, consultancy study on the effectiveness of graduate teachers in public-sector primary schools, the study of Hong Kong primary whole day school system, school-institute collaboration development projects, etc.