

ASIA LEADERSHIP ROUNDTABLE

BANGKOK
2011

Educational Reform and Change in the Asia Pacific Region

Prof. Dennis F. BERG

Southeast Asian Ministers of Education Organization, Vietnam

Email: dberg@exchange.fullerton.edu

Dr. Dennis Berg has been working in the field of education for over four decades. He has been Professor, Program Coordinator, Department Chair, Associate Dean of his College, University Associate Vice President and the Dean of Graduate Studies at California State University, Fullerton. His most current experiences in higher education include Director of Research and Faculty Development at Hoa Sen University, HCMC, Associate Provost of Tan Tao University in Long Anh Province, Vietnam and Herd of Research and Development, SEAMEO-RETRAC, Ho Chi Minh City.

Dr. Berg has been actively combining theory and practice in education and information dissemination through teaching various courses: statistic, research methods, and instructional technology; conducting numerous training workshops for all levels of education in Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos, as well as supervising both undergraduate and graduate level students in research at various institutions of higher learning.

Dr. Berg earned his Doctoral Degree in Sociology from the University of Southern California, Los Angeles. In addition, Dr Berg is the author of many publications, reports, and monographs. Dr. Berg has also been project director on many research and consulting projects concerning education, society and community. Dr. Berg is the recipient of Vietnam's National Medal of Achievement for his work in Education in Vietnam. Dr. Berg has become a Research Associate with the Hong Kong Institute of Education and is conducting research in leadership and educational management among high school principals in Vietnam.

