

ASIA LEADERSHIP ROUNDTABLE

BANGKOK
2011

Educational Reform and Change in the Asia Pacific Region

Dr. Ho Thanh My Phuong

SEAMEO Regional Training Center, Vietnam

Email: htmpuong@vnseameo.org

Dr. Ho Thanh My Phuong has been working as an instructor and educational administrator at Higher Education for 24 years. In addition, she has been an active facilitator in many training workshops regarding English teaching methodology, curriculum and course development, educational assessment, educational leadership and research methods both domestically and internationally. Dr. Phuong has been the principle supervisor of many Master theses at the University of Social Science and Humanity in Ho Chi Minh City and Can Tho University and Doctorate dissertation at the National University.

Dr. Ho Thanh My Phuong earned her Bachelor Degree of Arts in English Teaching from the University of Education in Ho Chi Minh City. She earned a Master Degree of Arts in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) from the University of Canberra, Australia. In the year 2000 she won a scholarship from the Ford Foundation International Fellowship Program and went to study at the University of Southern California, USA. From this university she earned her Master of Science in Education (MSEd) in 2002 and Doctorate Degree in Educational Leadership and Management in August 2004.

Dr. Phuong was in the post of the Director of Research and International Relations Department concurrently the Director of the Resource Center for Community Development at An Giang University until she joined SEAMEO RETRAC in June 2007. Since that time she has been working as a trainer, curriculum designer for training courses offered at SEAMEO RETRAC, and a researcher in quite a lot of international collaborative research projects.

