Educational Reform and Change in the Asia Pacific Region

Mr. Perry TUNESI

Sha Tin Junior School, Hong Kong

Email: perry.tunesi@sjs.esf.edu.hk

Perry joined the Foundation in 1988 as a class teacher at Quarry Bay School. He is currently Principal of Sha Tin Junior School.

He is currently in his second Principal roles within the ESF.

The ESF is a non-profit educational foundation with 21 schools from kindergarten through to secondary level (3 – 18 years of age). ESF provides a non-selective inclusive education. Many schools host Learning Support Classes and there are plans to increase the provision to every primary and secondary school over the next few years. There is also a custom-built school for children with severe special educational needs.

Perry has been actively involved in developing, initiating and promoting change and reform both in his own schools and within the Foundation as a whole.
