Leadership and Learning in Asia Pacific: Challenges for Research and Practice

Mr. Ed WICKINS

King George V School

Email: ed.wickins@kgv.edu.hk

Ed Wickins is currently Principal of King George Vth School, Hong Kong which is the largest ESF secondary school. He is also studying for his EdD through the University of Bristol and is in the process of researching the leadership of Principals in Hong Kong international secondary schools in preparation for his dissertation. He is particularly interested in how school culture influences leadership challenges and solutions. Prior to coming to Hong Kong in 2004 he was a Headteacher of two different English comprehensive schools in Gloucestershire.
