

ASIA LEADERSHIP ROUNDTABLE

HO CHI MINH CITY
2012

Leadership and Learning in Asia Pacific: Challenges for Research and Practice

Dr. JAMIL Adimin

Institut Aminuddin Baki, Ministry of Education, Malaysia

Email: jamil@iab.edu.my

Dr. Adimin is responsible for planning, leading, organizing and controlling the management of policy and development of school leaders and system leaders in Malaysian education system. He holds a bachelor's degree in Science with Education from University of Malaya, Master of Education from National University of Malaysia and PhD from the University of Manchester, England in Educational Measurement and Evaluation. He started his career as a Mathematics and Physics teacher from 1980 to 1984 before joining the Malaysian Examination Syndicate (MES) for more than 27 years. He has been involved in a lot of work related to educational assessment, training and development. He is very passionate in intellectual discourses regarding the future directions of educational assessment, schooling and students' learning. He has written many articles, papers and reports in educational training and assessment. He has attended many meetings, seminars and conferences either as a participant or paper presenter.

The Joseph Lau Luen Hung Charitable Trust
Asia Pacific Centre
for Leadership and Change

劉鑾雄慈善基金
亞太領導與變革研究中心

IREED

Institute for Research on Educational Development