Leadership and Learning in Asia Pacific: Challenges for Research and Practice

Mr. Richard DYER

British International School, Vietnam

Email: richarddyer@bisvietnam.com

Richard taught mathematics in London before taking up his first international post at Island School in Hong Kong in 1986. He spent 21 years with the English Schools Foundation in Hong Kong, during which time he became Deputy Principal of West Island School. He left Hong Kong in 2007 to become Principal of The Alice Smith School in Kuala Lumpur. Following a brief but rewarding career detour into primary education at Garden International School, Richard joined British International School Ho Chi Minh City as Head Teacher (Secondary) in 2010. With three internationally educated children of his own, Richard remains committed to the future of international schools, particularly in Asia.
