

Ms. Mistirine RADIN

Institut Aminuddin Baki, Ministry Of Education, Malaysia

Email: mistrine1808@yahoo.com

Mistirine Radin is currently the Deputy Director at IAB, the National Education Leadership Training Centre of the Ministry of Education Malaysia. She is directly in charge of the training services provided by the institution. Prior to this, she was the Director of Education at the State Education Department at the Federal Territory of Labuan, a small island where business and leisure meets at the west coast of Borneo. She has a wide experience in education leadership and management. Having held positions as the State of Sabah Head of School Inspectors, and 14 years as a secondary school principal. In her involvement in the field of education which spans a period of 31 years, she has been serving and inspecting schools in remote islands and rural areas where most of the students are indigenous Malaysian.