E. jenny@jennylewisandassociates.com.au

Jenny is an experienced national and international consultant and provides leadership, coaching and facilitation roles for state, national and international education systems, individual schools, and school leaders to develop innovative and sustainable practices to improve student outcomes. She is Executive Director of the International Congress for School Effectiveness and Improvement and the CEO of the Commonwealth Council for Educational Administration and Management.

Her work targets school and system leadership improvement, individual and team leadership capacity building, teacher quality and the change management strategies that shift 'schooling' to learning. Jenny provides a vibrant mix of strategies that ensure thriving eco-systems of learning are scaffolded through collaboration and connected learning networks to ensure positive impact, growth and development.

Jenny has led organisational and systemic reviews and implementations, and has been a member of global leadership teams that have assisted the Abu Dhabi, Australian, the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, Qatar, the Solomon Islands, South Africa and the Tongan governments to implement micro and macro leadership reforms. She recently led the review of the school inspection system for the Indonesian Ministry of Education and Culture.

Jenny is currently completing her Ph.D and is analysing international principal certification and registration programs with an aim to build a formative program for aspirant principals in Australia.
