

Dr Michelle Suzette Jones

University of Bath

UK

Dr. Michelle Suzette Jones is an internationally recognized expert in school leadership, professional learning communities and blended learning. Before taking up her most recent academic post at the University of Bath, she was Associate Professor and Deputy Director of the Institute of Educational Leadership, University of Malaya, where she led on Academic Development and Internationalization. Dr. Jones' commitment to educational excellence has driven her entire career. In 2008 she was seconded to the Welsh Government, UK as an Education Adviser and co led the national implementation of the 'Professional Learning Communities' programme in over 2000 schools in Wales. She has been an Education consultant for the World Bank since 2010 assisting schools in challenging circumstances. Most recently, she has been working with government agencies in England, Russia, Singapore, Australia and Malaysia to contribute to the design and delivery of their leadership and professional learning programmes. Dr. Jones is a Research Fellow of the The Education University of Hong Kong and a Senior Research Fellow at the Moscow Higher School of Economics. She is currently the principal investigator on a research project that is exploring instructional leadership practices in Asia and is also the PI on a Head Foundation research project that is exploring 'turnaround schools' in Malaysia and Indonesia.

7

AS:A LEADERSHIP ROUNDTABLE 2017 | 亞太領導圓桌會議二零一七

years on: The state of the Asian knowledge base?
年以來亞太教育領導知識基礎述評

Taipei 台北