Prof. Ellen Goldring

Vanderbilt University

E. ellen.goldring@vanderbilt.edu

Ellen Goldring is Patricia and Rodes Hart Professor and Chair, Department of Leadership, Policy and Organizations, Peabody College, Vanderbilt University. Her research interests focus on the intersection of education policy and school improvement with particular emphases on education leadership. A fellow of the American Educational Research Association and Past Vice-President of AERA's Division of Policy and Politics, she is the recipient of the University Council for Educational Administration's Roald F. Campbell Lifetime Achievement Award.

Her research examines leadership practice, and the implementation and effects of interventions such as professional development, coaching, and performance feedback. Currently, she is leading the evaluation of the implementation of the Wallace Foundation's Principal Supervisor Initiative. Her other current projects include a study of the Instructional Partnership Initiative, and a validation study of a diagnostic assessment of instructional leadership capacity.
