Prof. Wendy Pan

Tamkang University

E. panhlw@gmail.com

Dr Hui-Ling Wendy Pan has been Professor of Graduate Institute of Educational Policy and Leadership at Tamkang University since 2011. She held office as the institute's director during 2014-15. Because of her valuable experiences in education, she is nominated as Executive Director of the Center for Learning and Teaching at Tamkang University since August, 2015. She is former Professor and Director of Graduate Institute of Educational Policy and Administration at National Taiwan Normal University, as well as the Director of the Centre for Educational Research of the university. In addition to her positions in the academia, Dr Pan has served on ad hoc committees of Taiwan's Ministry of Education for years. Her rich experiences in education-related fields allow her to combine research with first-hand practice. She is a senior editor of the Section of Educational Leadership and Management, Cogent Education and Past President of two educational associations in Taiwan: School Administration Research Association, R.O.C., and Taiwan Association for Local Educational Development. She serves on the board of directors for more than ten associations.

Dr Pan's publications reflect her bountiful experiences in research, teaching, and practice. She has authored and edited dozens of books and a good many of conference papers, articles, and book chapters on educational leadership, school improvement, and educational evaluation. She has launched more than a hundred research programmes and the main concern of her studies is to transform the school into a system of self-creation.
