Allan Walker is an Adjunct Research Chair Professor of International Educational Leadership and senior advisor of The Joseph Lau Luen Hung Charitable Trust Asia Pacific Centre for Leadership and Change (APCLC) at The Education University of Hong Kong (EdUHK). Previously, he served as Joseph Lau Chair Professor of International Educational Leadership, Dean of the Faculty of Education and Human Development, and Director of APCLC. Before joining EdUHK, he worked in universities in Australia, Singapore, and the Chinese University of Hong Kong. He has conducted leadership development courses and/or research in America, Europe, and Asia Pacific.

Allan has published extensively on educational administration, culture, leadership, and school leadership development and learning. Allan serves on the editorial boards of the top-ranked journals in his field and has published over 300 books and articles with international publishers and in the world's most prestigious academic journals. His recent research focuses on expanding knowledge of school leadership in Chinese and other Asian societies and disseminating this internationally. His work also explores the relationship between culture and school leadership. His most recent book is Deciphering School Leadership in China: Conceptualisation, Context and Complexities (co-authored with Qian Haiyan).

Allan has also acted as a consultant/advisor on large-scale research and development activities in countries including China, Taiwan, Singapore, Malaysia, Thailand, Vietnam, Philippines, Indonesia, Norway, Finland, Netherlands, Germany, Sweden, Switzerland, UK, Canada, the US, South Africa, Chile, New Zealand, and Australia. Allan has been recognised internationally as a leader in cross-cultural comparative educational leadership, leadership across Chinese societies, and authentic leadership.
