Part II

The University's Graduate Attributes and seven Generic Intended Learning Outcomes (GILOs) represent the attributes of ideal EdUHK graduates and their expected qualities respectively. Learning outcomes work coherently at the University (GILOs), programme (Programme Intended Learning Outcomes) and course (Course Intended Learning Outcomes) levels to achieve the goal of nurturing students with important graduate attributes.

In gist, the Graduate Attributes for Undergraduate, Taught Postgraduate and Research Postgraduate students consist of the following three domains (i.e. in short "PEER & I"):

- Professional Excellence;
- Ethical Responsibility; &
- Innovation.

The seven GILOs are:

1. Problem Solving Skills
2. Critical Thinking Skills
3. Creative Thinking Skills
- 4a. Oral Communication Skills
- 4b. Written Communication Skills
5. Social Interaction Skills
6. Ethical Decision Making
7. Global Perspectives

1. Course Synopsis

This course aims to enable students to have opportunities to take an explicitly comparative perspective to understanding major issues related to economic and social development in the Greater Chinese region. The course will engage students in a critical analysis of key development issues and challenges in China, Taiwan, Hong Kong and Macau, with particular emphasis on examining policy responses to the challenges in these Chinese societies. With consideration of continuing development challenges, the course aims to introduce students to the question of whether economic growth can contribute to a more equitable distribution of income and wealth, whether and how government policies can expand and improve accessibility to public services (especially for vulnerable groups), and whether and how economic development can be environmentally sustainable. Students will also look at issues pertaining to development from a social innovation perspective.

2. Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs)

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- CILO<sub>1</sub> Understand different notions of and approaches to economic and social development.
- CILO<sub>2</sub> Analyze the positive and negative impacts of industrialization, urbanization, and globalization on human welfare, such as economic growth, unemployment, poverty and income disparities, and population health and health inequalities, and demonstrate an awareness of how these challenges pose obstacles to the achievement of social development.
- CILO<sub>3</sub> Examine the roles and efforts of various governments in the Greater Chinese societies in addressing these pressing challenges.
- CILO<sub>4</sub> Apply research and communication skills, team work, discussion and presentation in a group context.
