Part II

1. Synopsis

The Student Internship aims to help students integrate and apply in a real-life setting the knowledge and skills they have gained in earlier stages of the programme. Students will be expected to engage in reflection throughout their Internship experience and make analyses with regard to the problems and prospects in Greater China. Placement in the public, private or third sectors will enhance students' sense of social responsibility as well as their regional and global literacy. Practical experience in various fields will also assist students in making decisions on their future career.

2. Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs)

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- CILO₁ demonstrate enhanced understanding of Greater China through first hand practical experience.
- CILO₂ apply knowledge and skills (including problem solving, critical thinking and other generic skills as appropriate) to real life work situations.
- CILO₃ demonstrate ability to analyse and think critically about experiences gained during Internship in relation to programme coursework.
- CILO₄ develop effective communication and problem solving skills for personal and career development.
- CILO₅ demonstrate competence and commitment in work-related contexts.

3. Content, CILOs and Teaching & Learning Activities
