

Policy Dialogue Series: Professor Alfred Chan Cheung-ming on New Trends and Strategies in Elder Care

1 April 2015

(From Left to Right) Prof. Chou Kee Lee, Prof. Alfred Chan Cheung-ming, Prof. Joanne Chung and Ms. Isabella Ng

Professor Alfred Chan Cheung-ming, Chair Professor of Social Gerontology, Department of Sociology & Social Policy at Lingnan University, addressed a forum on 1 April 2015 at The Hong Kong Institute of Education (HKIEd) to share his insights into elder care and solutions to tackle the increasingly serious aging problem in Hong Kong.

Professor Alfred Chan Cheung-ming shares his insights into elder care and solutions to tackle the increasingly serious aging problem in Hong Kong.

The forum was attended by HKIEd academics, students and members of the public, the forum was part of a policy dialogue series organised by the Department of Asian and Policy Studies (APS).

The forum was part of a policy dialogue series organized by APS.

Professor Alfred Chan Cheung-ming, Chair Professor of Social Gerontology, Department of Sociology & Social Policy at Lingnan University (left) and Ms. Isabella, Lecturer of APS at HKIEd.

- End -