English Café:

The space for practising your spoken English

The aim of the language Café is to have a forum to practice English in a fun and unthreatening environment.

It is a social space for students to meet, talk and learn English together in an informal and sociable way. English café is run by the International Tutors every day at ASLLC.

No bookings are needed, so drop in any time you like and meet our new team of International Tutors!

Independent Language Learning at EdUHK

The Arthur Samy Language learning Centre (ASLLC) aims to help students at EdUHK with their language learning by offering guided-learning and self-access multi-media facilities for the study of a range of languages, including English, Chinese and Putonghua.

Learners can work with a team of experienced language advisors to set language learning goals, plan their learning, and find suitable resources and activities, as well as develop strategies for effective language study.

The ASLLC is specially designed for learners who want to:

- set their own language learning goals and study at their own pace
- receive feedback on writing or speaking
- get help with particular language difficulties
- practice a particular skill, such as reading or listening
- prepare for public exams, such as IELTS, LPAT or PSC
- maintain language levels or learn new languages

What can learners do in the ASLLC?

Learners can:

- get individual face-to-face help from a language advisor
- access language learning software, e-learning, reference books and materials
- join a workshop or a language learning activity
- receive training for public exams, such as IELTS, LPAT and PSC
- play board games
- chat with international tutors on different topics
