Centre for Educational and Developmental Sciences

Project Title: A multi-disciplinary study on the roles of Pedagogy and Parents in Children's Developmental and Educational Trajectories
[Appointment Period: 12 months]

The Centre for Educational and Developmental Sciences is inviting applications for the positions of and Research Assistant I for the project "A multi-disciplinary study on the roles of Pedagogy and Parents in Children's Developmental and Educational Trajectories." This project aims to understand the development of key childhood outcomes (numeracy, literacy, self-regulation, socio-emotional skills, physical and psychological well-being) with a focus on understanding the interplay between the quality of classroom pedagogy and children's developing capabilities.

The appointee will be responsible for participant recruitment, liaising with parents and kindergartens, and administering standardised tests. He/she will also assist in literature search, data management, organizing project schedules, and other project-related administrative work. The appointment will be for a period of 12 months with the possibility of renewal subject to mutual agreement.

Applicants should have a Bachelor's Degree in the Social Sciences, Psychology, Education, or other related subjects. Applicants should have excellent written and spoken skills in English and Cantonese. Experience working with kindergarten children and in conducting research are desirable.
