

Founded in 1994 and awarded the University title in 2016, The Education University of Hong Kong (EdUHK) is a publicly funded university, dedicated to the advancement of learning and teaching through a diverse offering of academic and research programmes up to doctoral level in teacher education and complementary disciplines, such as the social sciences and humanities. The University aspires to further enhance its role as a leading university in the Asia Pacific region and beyond, with a focus on educational research, development and innovation, and recognized for its excellence in nurturing outstanding and caring professionals as well as the impact of scholarship.

The University has an academic/teaching staff strength of about 450 and total student headcount of about 11,000. It has a Graduate School and three Faculties, namely, Faculty of Education and Human Development, Faculty of Humanities, and Faculty of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences, comprising 16 academic departments, as well as various University-level and Faculty-level research and professional development centres. For more information about the University, please visit <http://www.eduhk.hk>.

We are looking for suitable candidate(s) to fill the following position(s). If you are excited by the prospect of contributing your expertise to the development of a leading university at the heart of Asia Pacific region and beyond, we would like to hear from you.

Educational Development Manager / Assistant Educational Development Manager (Ref: 2200245)
Centre for Learning, Teaching and Technology

The appointee will support a computational thinking-coding education project. Duties include teaching computational thinking (CT) and coding courses to primary school teachers, leading the curriculum team in developing and refining curriculum for in-service teachers which helps them to implement CT education in primary schools, conducting school visits and advising schools on the implementation of school-based CT curriculum, and liaising with internal and external parties. The appointee will be expected to carry out other duties as assigned by the Centre Director.

Applicants should have a Bachelor's degree, with substantial working experience in sizable organisations at managerial/ supervisory levels; strong leadership and supervisory experience; excellent interpersonal and communication skills. A Master's Degree is a plus. They should be well-versed in the local education environment, especially the primary school sector; and be able to identify the current key strategic issues in learning and teaching in primary education. Knowledge in Scratch programming, App Inventor programming, programmable robotics, such as micro:bit will be an advantage. Applicants should be proficient in both English and Chinese.

Applicants with less experience will be considered as Assistant Educational Development Manager.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include contract-end gratuity, leave, medical and dental benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV on or before 28 March 2022. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to <http://www.eduhk.hk/jobsopp/index.php?glang=en>.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted. The University reserves the right not to fill the position(s) advertised.

Further information about the University is available at <http://www.eduhk.hk>.

EdUHK is an Equal Opportunities Employer.