

Research Assistant I (Half-time) (Ref: 2200703)
Department of Social Sciences

Project Title: Emerging Impact Case: Improve public understanding and service support to Chinese adoptive families

[Appointment Period: 10 months]

The appointee will be responsible for overseeing the publication and distribution of a picture book on adoptive families; coordinating and organizing seminars and workshops; and offering research support (such as literature review, coding, drafting proposals, etc.) to the team. The appointment will last for not more than 10 months (i.e. September 2022 to June 2023).

Applicants should have a Bachelor's Degree, preferably with a Master's Degree in Social Sciences. They should have good knowledge of qualitative research methods and excellent communication skills. They should have a good command of both spoken and written Chinese and English.

For further enquiries about the post, please contact Dr CHAN Kit Wa Anita at akwchan@eduhk.hk.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV on or before 8 August 2022. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to <http://www.eduhk.hk/jobsopp/index.php?glang=en>.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted. The University reserves the right not to fill the position(s) advertised.

Further information about the University is available at <http://www.eduhk.hk>.

EdUHK is an Equal Opportunities Employer.