Senior Lecturer II / Lecturer I/II (Ref: 2200839)
Department of Special Education and Counselling
Faculty of Education and Human Development

The Department is now seeking qualified and highly dedicated colleague for the teaching position at the rank of Senior Lecturer II in the area of counselling, or any other relevant areas. The appointee will be responsible for teaching duties for undergraduate and postgraduate programmes in counselling and counselling related courses; contributing to programme development; engaging in departmental and faculty services, or any other tasks assigned by the Head of the Department. They may also be required to supervise students on teaching practice and counselling practicum.

Applicants with expertise in the following areas are welcome to apply:

Counselling/Counselling related disciplines, with extensive clinical practice in communities, and/or with teaching experiences in tertiary institutions.

For the post of Senior Lecturer II, applicants should have a Master's degree in a relevant subject discipline plus a minimum of 8 years' relevant post-qualification practice or teaching experience in counselling or related areas; or preferably a Doctoral degree plus a minimum of 3 years' relevant post-qualification teaching experience in the subject applied for.

For the post of Lecturer I, applicants should have a Master's degree in a relevant subject discipline plus a minimum of 4 years' relevant post-qualification teaching experience in teaching of students with special educational needs. Applicants who have less relevant post-qualification teaching experience in the subject applied for will be considered for the post of Lecturer II.

Proven evidence of professional experience at schools, NGOs, and/or teaching experiences in tertiary institution is required. Significant contributions to professional development and/or education programmes/practicum coordination are an advantage. It would be advantageous to applicants to have the ability to teach through more than one medium of instruction (English/Cantonese/Putonghua).

Applicants should preferably possess a relevant professional teaching certificate, e.g. PGDE or qualification of Qualified Teacher Status (QTS) recognized by the Education Bureau of Hong Kong or other qualification of equivalence.

For information of the Department, please visit this website: <http://www.eduhk.hk/sec/en>

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include contract-end gratuity, leave, medical and dental benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV. Review of applications will start from 2 September 2022, and will continue until the post is filled. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to <http://www.eduhk.hk/jobsoff/index.php?glang=en>.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted. The University reserves the right not to fill the position(s) advertised. Since the incumbent's work would involve contacts with persons aged under 18 and/or mentally incapacitated persons, prospective employee(s) will be required to undergo Sexual Conviction Record Check operated by the Hong Kong Police Force.
