

Guest Lecturer (Part-time) (Three posts) (Ref: 2200836)
Department of Asian and Policy Studies

The Department of Asian and Policy Studies (APS) is a research-intensive department that prides itself on policy-driven research focused on Asia. The Department's faculty are engaged in research addressing urban and social policy, immigration, governance, international relations, and comparative political economy. The Department offers degree programmes at the undergraduate and postgraduate levels.

APS is now seeking part-time Guest Lecturers to teach the following undergraduate courses:

- (i) Political Economy of Southeast Asian Countries
- (ii) Politics and Law in Greater China
- (iii) Comparative Social Policy in Asia
- (iv) Risk Management and Decision Making

The appointment will be for a period of one semester commencing in January 2023.

Applicants should have a Master's Degree, preferably a PhD, in a relevant discipline with a strong sense of responsibility and commitment to teaching.
