

Post-doctoral Fellow (Ref: 2200871)
Department of Literature and Cultural Studies

Project Title:

Intercultural and Interdisciplinary Humanities as an Area of Strength at EdUHK: From Internationalisation to Regional Leadership

[Appointment Period: 12 months]

The Department of Literature and Cultural Studies seeks a postdoctoral fellow to enhance the department's ongoing and developing initiatives in the area of Digital Humanities. These centre around literary and historical inquiry with GIS, computational approaches to literary and philological research, and teaching and learning with technology. During the appointment period, the appointee will present the work during the departmental seminar series, produce at least one article-length research output or comparable digital project, and support the department's teaching development, knowledge transfer, and community service projects (as appropriate). He/she will also help teach the department's interdisciplinary introduction to the digital humanities (and/or other courses as appropriate).

The applicant should have either (1) a Doctoral Degree related to information technology, with evidence of collaboration with humanities scholars or (2) a Doctoral Degree in a humanities field with evidence of conducting research related to digital humanities. Alongside required application documents, candidates should submit 1) a detailed cover letter describing previous experiences related to digital humanities; 2) a two-page precis of the work they would like to undertake during their fellowship; 3) evidence of successful previous teaching experience.

This is a fixed-term postdoctoral fellowship, aimed at an early career scholar within the fields of literary, historical, or cultural studies. The appointment will be for a period of 12 months, with the possibility of renewal subject to mutual agreement. Applicants must have a Doctoral Degree in a related discipline in hand by the start date.

For further enquiries about the post, please contact Dr Jeffrey Clapp at jmclapp@eduhk.hk.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include contract-end gratuity, leave, medical and dental benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV on or before 1 January 2023. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to <http://www.eduhk.hk/jobsopp/index.php?glang=en>.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted. The University reserves the right not to fill the position(s) advertised. Since the incumbent's work would involve contacts with persons aged under 18 and/or mentally incapacitated persons, prospective employee(s) will be required to undergo Sexual Conviction Record Check operated by the Hong Kong Police Force.

Further information about the University is available at <http://www.eduhk.hk>.

EdUHK is an Equal Opportunities Employer.