

Counsellor (Ref: 2201320)
Student Affairs Office

The appointee will be required to provide individual psychological counselling for students; provide psychological testing services on mood and personality; conduct workshops and organize programmes of various nature on mental health and psychological wellness; arrange support services and trainings for student groups to enhance their adjustment and development; and provide counselling support for student in crisis.

Applicants should have a Bachelor's or Master's degree in counselling / social work / clinical or educational psychology, with 5 or more years of post-qualification work experience, preferably in tertiary institutions or other mental health agencies working with young people, and under membership of relevant professional bodies in Hong Kong or overseas. They should also be proficient in both written and spoken English and Chinese (Cantonese and Putonghua).

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include contract-end gratuity, leave, medical and dental benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV. Review of applications will start from 2 January 2023, and will continue until the post is filled. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to <http://www.eduhk.hk/jobsopp/index.php?glang=en>.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted. The University reserves the right not to fill the position(s) advertised. Since the incumbent's work would involve contacts with persons aged under 18 and/or mentally incapacitated persons, prospective employee(s) will be required to undergo Sexual Conviction Record Check operated by the Hong Kong Police Force.

Further information about the University is available at <http://www.eduhk.hk>.

EdUHK is an Equal Opportunities Employer.