We are looking for a high caliber candidate to join CLAP@JC (“CLAP”), which has entered its second phase for another five-year and is a project initiated by The Hong Kong Jockey Club Charities Trust and co-created by The Education University of Hong Kong (EdUHK). It focuses on fostering a sustainable ecosystem to facilitate youth with their transition from school to work, enabling them to pursue a fulfilling life through cross sector collaborations in school, community and workplace, under the framework of Hong Kong Benchmarks for Career and Life Development (HKBM).

The appointee will be responsible for supporting the research initiatives of a multidisciplinary research team. He/she will support the CLAP@JC and its research collaboration project, “Life and Career Development Across the Life Span: A Pathway to Enhance Urban Resilience in Hong Kong for Post-Covid Era.”. He/She is expected to lead/ co-lead in research strategy design, research project management that includes literature review, planning, liaison, participant recruitment, data collection, data analysis, and report writing, etc. He/she is also expected to perform any other duties as assigned by the supervisor(s). The appointment will be initially for a period of 12 months, with the possibility of renewal subject to mutual agreement.

Applicants should have a relevant Doctoral Degree in Social Sciences such as sociology, psychology, public health, or a related discipline with solid training in quantitative research methods and good publication track record. Sound interpersonal and communication skills, good command of both written and spoken English and Chinese (including Cantonese), self-motivation, and the ability to work independently would be an added advantage. Those with several years' working experience in the related fields are highly preferred. Applicants with less relevant experience and lower qualifications may be considered for the post of Senior Research Assistant.

Applicants who have responded to the previous advertisement (Ref: 2300219) for the same position are under consideration and need not re-apply.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include contract-end gratuity, leave, medical and dental benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV on or before 31 March 2023. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes.
