

Post-doctoral Fellow (Ref: 2300384)
Centre for Psychosocial Health

Project Title: Research responding to the societal and public health crises

[Appointment Period: 12 months]

In support of the Government's Job Creation Scheme 3.0 under the Anti-epidemic Fund, The Education University of Hong Kong has created positions covering a wide range of job functions and levels. This is in response to the difficult labour market situation in the wake of the pandemic, with an aim of providing employment opportunities for those with different skill sets, qualifications and years of experience. Applications are invited for the captioned position.

The Centre for Psychosocial Health (CPH) is conducting timely research to respond to the societal and public health crises and to address public mental health with both local and global considerations. The post-doctoral fellow will play a critical role in supporting the Centre Director and Members, planning and conducting research, as well as leading/supporting academic publications. He/she will also supervise research assistant(s) in the implementation of projects and dissemination of research findings, and perform any other duties as assigned by supervisor(s). The appointment will be for 12 months.

Applicants should have a Ph.D. degree in psychology, public health, sociology, quantitative social sciences, or a relevant discipline, a demonstrated record of publishing academic research papers, an excellent command of written and verbal English and Chinese (Putonghua and Cantonese), good interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills, and experiences and self-motivation to work independently or in a multidisciplinary team.

For more information about the position, please contact Dr Hou Wai Kai at wkhoul@eduhk.hk.
