

Founded in 1994 and awarded the University title in 2016, The Education University of Hong Kong (EdUHK) is a publicly funded university, dedicated to the advancement of teacher education and related disciplines through a diverse offering of academic, professional and research programmes. Approaching its 30th anniversary, the University aspires to become a leading university in the Asia Pacific region and beyond, with a focus on educational and multidisciplinary research, development and innovation. We are committed to nurturing outstanding and caring educators and professionals as well as enhancing the impact of scholarship.

The University has an academic/teaching staff strength of about 450 and total student headcount of about 11,000. It has a Graduate School and three Faculties, namely, Faculty of Education and Human Development, Faculty of Humanities, and Faculty of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences, comprising 15 academic departments, as well as a number of University-level research centres and Faculty-level research and professional development centres and academies. For more information about the University, please visit <http://www.eduhk.hk>.

We are looking for suitable candidate(s) to fill the following position(s). If you are excited by the prospect of contributing your expertise to the development of a leading university at the heart of Asia Pacific region and beyond, we would like to hear from you.

Research Assistant Professor (Ref: 2301290) Academy for Applied Policy Studies and Education Futures

Reporting to the Director and Executive Director, the appointee is responsible for leading research projects, partial teaching duties, and assist to manage the Executive Master of Public Administration and Leadership (EMPAL) programme. Specific responsibilities include:

- Conducting research independently and within collaborative teams of all levels;
- Initiating research projects and securing external research grants (e.g. ECS/GRF);
- Undertaking teaching duties at undergraduate and/or postgraduate levels, and/or supervision of postgraduate students;
- Formulating strategies for the development of the EMPAL Programme that are in alignment with the strategic direction of the University;
- Overseeing the planning and execution of various initiatives, events, and programmes to ensure they achieve the KPI's set out for them;
- Supporting the development of the Centres under the AAPSEF, working closely with the Centre Directors;
- Developing and maintaining strategic partnership of the Academy with stakeholders both Faculties and Departments within the University, and external parties including but not limited to donors and service users; and
- Perform any tasks as assigned by the Director and Executive Director.

Applicants should have completed a doctoral degree in the Public Administration, Sociology, Economics and/or Law discipline, have a publication track record commensurate with the level of appointment, and ideally will have held at least one external appointment at postdoctoral level (e.g. postdoctoral fellow, lecturer or research assistant professor or similar). Applicants with specialization in Asian, China and Hong Kong studies will be highly preferred.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include the University's Voluntary Contributions to MPF Scheme or a contract-end lump sum payment (totaling up to 15% of the basic salary), leave, medical and dental benefits, and, where applicable, housing benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV on or before 5 December 2023. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to <http://www.eduhk.hk/jobsopp/index.php?glang=en>.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted. The University reserves the right not to fill the position(s) advertised. Since the incumbent's work would involve contacts with persons aged under 18 and/or mentally incapacitated persons, prospective employee(s) will be required to undergo Sexual Conviction Record Check operated by the Hong Kong Police Force.

EdUHK is an Equal Opportunities Employer.