

Project Officer (Ref: 2301301)
Department of Mathematics and Information Technology

The appointee will be responsible for overseeing and executing three AI projects. He/She will also be responsible for coordinating project timelines, ensuring tasks are completed as planned, identifying and resolving project issues and risks, as well as maintaining and managing development equipment, and performing any other duties as assigned by supervisors.

Applicant should have a Bachelor's degree with several years of relevant IT experience. Proficiency in Unity, Python, web development, and VR is essential. The ideal candidate should possess the ability to independently solve complex problems, allocate tasks to project members, and assist team members in addressing technical issues. Strong knowledge and experience in software development methodologies, as well as a solid understanding of front-end and back-end technologies, are highly desirable.

Additionally, applicants should have comprehensive experience in frontend, backend, and operations, and demonstrate excellent communication, teamwork, and coordination abilities, along with the capability to perform well under pressure.
