

Research Assistant I (Ref: 2400603)
Department of Curriculum and Instruction

Project Title: The Education University of Hong Kong (EdUHK) and Quanzhou Normal University (QNU) Collaboration Project

[Appointment Period: 12 months]

We are seeking a highly motivated Research Assistant I (Full Time) to join our team and contribute to research projects in educational psychology and assessment. The successful candidate will be responsible for conducting literature reviews, collecting and analyzing data, and writing reports. Strong statistical skills, including experience with SPSS, Mplus, and R, are essential, along with a demonstrated ability to produce high-quality written work. This position requires someone who is well-organized, self-disciplined, and capable of working both independently and as part of a team. Excellent interpersonal and communication skills are also essential.

Applicants should have a bachelor's degree or higher in educational psychology and assessment, or a related field, along with a minimum of two years of full-time work experience. Preference will be given to candidates with a master's degree. Proficiency in both written and spoken English and Chinese is required. The initial appointment is for 12 months, with the possibility of renewal based on mutual agreement. Immediate availability is preferred. We are looking for someone committed to excellence and able to thrive in a collaborative research environment. If you possess these qualities and are passionate about educational psychology and assessment, we encourage you to apply.
