Senior Lecturer II / Lecturer I / Lecturer II (Ref: 2500835) Academy for Applied Policy Studies and Education Futures

Academy for Applied Policy Studies and Education Futures invites applications for a fixed-term appointment as Senior Lecturer II, Lecturer I, or Lecturer II in the fields of Chinese Foreign Affairs and International Relations, with a possibility of renewal based on satisfactory performance and available funding.

Applicants are expected to have at least two years of university-level teaching experience, with demonstrated subject expertise and pedagogical competence in Chinese Foreign Affairs and International Relations. The ideal candidate should be capable of contributing to the development of new courses that address China's evolving role in global governance, regional affairs (e.g., the Belt and Road Initiative), as well as International Political Economy, Comparative Foreign Policy Analysis, and related topics. Familiarity with interdisciplinary approaches and the ability to contextualise China's foreign policy within broader global trends would be highly valued.

Beyond teaching responsibilities, the appointee will also be expected to provide high-quality academic advising and personalised mentorship to support students' intellectual growth, research capabilities, and professional development, thereby fostering a dynamic and rigorous scholarly environment within the Academy. The appointee may be required to travel outside of Hong Kong and undertake work including teaching duties as assigned by the University, where necessary.

Qualifications:

Senior Lecturer II

- A Master's degree in Chinese Foreign Affairs, International Relations, International Political Economy, Global Governance or a related discipline with a minimum of 8 years of relevant post-qualification teaching or professional experience.
- Alternatively, candidates with a Doctoral degree should have at least 3 years of relevant post-qualification teaching or professional experience, along with evidence of high-quality teaching at the tertiary level.

Lecturer I

- A Master's degree in Chinese Foreign Affairs, International Relations, International Political Economy, Global Governance or a related discipline with a minimum of 4 years of relevant post-qualification teaching experience.
- Candidates should provide evidence of quality teaching and/or a proven record of successful, relevant professional experience at the tertiary level.

Lecturer II

- A Master's degree in Chinese Foreign Affairs, International Relations, International Political Economy, Global Governance, or a related discipline. Applicants with less relevant post-qualification teaching experience may be considered for this position.

All candidates must provide evidence of quality teaching and/or a proven record of successful, relevant professional experience at the tertiary level.

Applicants holding relevant professional teaching certificates, such as Qualified Teacher Status (QTS) recognised by the Hong Kong Education Bureau or equivalent qualifications, are preferred. They should be fluent in both Mandarin and English, with preferably some knowledge of Cantonese. Successful candidates must demonstrate versatility in teaching and expertise in Chinese Foreign Affairs and International Relations.

For enquiries, please contact Ms Emily Fong, Assistant Registrar of Academy for Applied Policy Studies and Education Futures (AAPSEF), at ecwfong@eduhk.hk

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include the University's Voluntary Contributions to MPF Scheme or a contract-end lump sum payment (totaling up to 10% of the basic salary for the position of Lecturer I and Lecturer II, and totaling up to 15% of the basic salary for the position of Senior Lecturer II), leave, medical and dental benefits, and, where applicable, housing benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV. Review of applications will start from 8 September 2025 and will continue until the post is filled. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to <http://www.eduhk.hk/jobsopp/index.php?glang=en>.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted. The University reserves the right not to fill the position(s) advertised. Since the incumbent's work would involve contacts with persons aged under 18 and/or mentally incapacitated persons, prospective employee(s) will be required to undergo Sexual Conviction Record Check operated by the Hong Kong Police Force.
