

Founded in 1994 and awarded the University title in 2016, The Education University of Hong Kong (EdUHK) is a publicly funded university, dedicated to the advancement of teacher education and related disciplines through a diverse offering of academic, professional and research programmes. The University aspires to become a leading university in the Asia Pacific region and beyond, with a focus on educational and multidisciplinary research, development and innovation. We are committed to nurturing outstanding and caring educators and professionals as well as enhancing the impact of scholarship.

The University has an academic/teaching staff strength of about 450 and total student headcount of about 11,000. It has a Graduate School and three Faculties, namely, Faculty of Education and Human Development, Faculty of Humanities, and Faculty of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences, comprising 15 academic departments, as well as two Academies, Academy for Educational Development and Innovation and Academy for Applied Policy Studies and Education Futures, a number of University-level research centres and Faculty-level research and professional development centres. For more information about the University, please visit <http://www.eduhk.hk>.

We are looking for suitable candidate(s) to fill the following position(s). If you are excited by the prospect of contributing your expertise to the development of a leading university at the heart of Asia Pacific region and beyond, we would like to hear from you.

Executive Head Office of the Vice President (Administration)

The Executive Head in the Office of Vice President (Administration) plays an important role in ensuring the smooth operation of administrative functions and supporting the Senior Management in achieving institutional goals. The appointee will be responsible for a wide range of high-level executive support to the Vice President (Administration) including but not limited to :

- Serve as a coordinator and senior executive in the Office of the Vice President (Administration) on strategic, operational, and policy matters
- Conduct and provide high-level analysis and recommendations to support decision-making
- Support to drive, manage, coordinate university-level special projects and initiatives under the remit of Office of the Vice President (Administration)
- Assist in the development and implementation of institutional strategies, goals and initiatives
- Oversee the day-to-day administrative operation of the Office of the Vice President (Administration), ensuring efficiency and alignment with university priorities.
- Act as a contact point between the senior management, and other university departments, government bureaux, external stakeholders and partners
- Assist the President and Vice Presidents to communicate with Council members on a need basis
- Lead the secretariat to ensure the administrative policies and procedures align with university regulations and good practices
- Supervise and mentor staff within the Office of the Vice President (Administration), fostering a collaborative and high-performing team
- Organize and provide secretarial support to university-level meetings, including agenda setting, minutes and ensure timely follow-up on decisions and actions

Applicants should have a recognized degree in law, public administration, finance, accounting, corporate governance, or a related field with substantial experience at senior level in administration at tertiary institutions or public organizations. Possession of professional qualifications such as membership of HKCGI or accredited mediator is an asset. Prior experiences and exposures in managing strategic projects and providing support in seeding and advancing different levels of collaborations and networks in Hong Kong, the Greater Bay Area, the region and beyond will be highly preferable. The appointee may need to travel outside Hong Kong on a need basis. The appointee should be a highly independent administrative leader with exemplary judgement, strong communication and coordination skills to manage initiatives and projects in team settings, strong presentation and negotiation skills to liaise with internal and external stakeholders, experience in staff supervision, conflict resolution, sensitivity to confidential matters, and the ability to manage challenging situations tactfully with high proficiency in written and spoken English and Putonghua.

Remuneration package will be highly competitive and negotiable, and attractive fringe benefits including housing benefits where appropriate, will be offered.

Application

The University is being represented in this search by ConnectedGroup Limited. Interested parties are invited to submit applications, together with a full curriculum vitae, in confidence to Mr Mathew Gollop's email to mat@connectedgroup.com on or before 26 September 2025. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to <http://www.eduhk.hk/jobsopp/index.php?glang=en>.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted. The University reserves the right not to fill the position(s) advertised. Since the incumbent's work would involve contacts with persons aged under 18 and/or mentally incapacitated persons, prospective employee(s) will be required to undergo Sexual Conviction Record Check operated by the Hong Kong Police Force.

EdUHK is an Equal Opportunities Employer.

