

Research Assistant I (Ref: 2501088)
Department of Social Sciences and Policy Studies

Project title: Project Title: Domestic Water in Hong Kong: Investigating beliefs, behaviour and nudging
[Appointment Period: 4 months]

We are seeking a Research Assistant I (full-time) to provide support for around 3 to 4 months for a research project relating to water policy in Hong Kong. The appointee will be responsible for a range of research tasks including data collection, data analysis, literature review, and preparing conference presentations and research-related duties as assigned.

Applicants should have a Bachelor's Degree in the area of public administration, public policy or a related field of social sciences, preferable with a Master degree or above. Preferred qualifications include experience in survey experiment methods and proficiency in written English. Preference will be given to those with research experience.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. Fringe benefits include leave and outpatient medical benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV on or before 12 November 2025. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to <http://www.eduhk.hk/jobsopp/index.php?glang=en>.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted. The University reserves the right not to fill the position(s) advertised. Since the incumbent's work would involve contacts with persons aged under 18 and/or mentally incapacitated persons, prospective employee(s) will be required to undergo Sexual Conviction Record Check operated by the Hong Kong Police Force.
