

Residential Officer (Ref: 2600033) Student Affairs Office

The University strives to make student halls a holistic living-learning environment that contributes to a positive campus life experience of residents, which is fundamental to self-actualization of potential and formation of values that guide their future development as intellectually active, socially caring, and globally aware professionals. There are four Government-funded student halls/quarters on Tai Po Campus, namely Northcote Hall, Grantham Hall, Robert Black Hall and the Jockey Club Student Quarters, providing about 2,000 residential places. All student halls are co-educational with around 550 students in each hall. Northcote, Grantham and Robert Black Halls each consists of 11 floors of 2 or 3-person shared study-bedrooms. Student-residents share communal facilities such as activity rooms, showers, toilets and pantries. For Jockey Club Student Quarters, it offers 6, 8, 9 and 12-person flats. Each flat has its own sitting/dining areas, terrace, bathrooms and kitchen.

The Residential Officer reports to the Hall Management Section of Student Affairs Office. Major responsibilities include organising hall life education (HLE) programme/activities, as well as activities that promote a green lifestyle in the hall community and other new initiatives, supporting the Warden/Assistant Warden in providing pastoral care and handling student-resident's disciplinary issues in accordance with the Residential Regulations, serving as the advisor to the Student Residents' Association (SRA) in the provision of HLE programmes/activities. He/she will also support other hall management duties including but not limited to hall admission, hall finance and facility management, committee service, and any other duties as assigned by the supervising officers in Student Affairs Office. The appointee will reside in a duty flat and is required to conduct activities and handles emergencies in the assigned student halls during non-office hours.

Applicants should possess a Bachelor's degree with several years of post-qualification working experience working with youth or in tertiary education setting. They should be highly self-motivated, attentive to details, and able to work under pressure to meet tight deadlines. They should also be a good coach and team player with strong project planning, event management, interpersonal and communication skills, and high proficiency in English and Chinese (including Putonghua). Applicants with knowledge/experience in project/event/hall management and student development will be an advantage.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include the University's Voluntary Contributions to MPF Scheme or a contract-end lump sum payment (totaling up to 10% of the basic salary), leave, medical and dental benefits. The appointee will hold a substantive rank of Executive Officer II in the University.
