

Teaching Assistant (Ref: 2600794)
Department of Education Policy and Leadership

The appointee will provide teaching, administrative and operational support to the Department's academic programmes and related activities. Major duties include supporting teaching and learning activities; assisting with course and class administration; preparing teaching and learning materials; supporting learning activities; maintaining student communication and records; and providing logistical support for academic events, workshops and field-based learning activities.

The appointee will also coordinate field experience activities, including liaising with relevant University units, schools and partner organisations, academic staff and students; arranging and assigning field experience visits; coordinating schedules, logistics, records and formal submissions; and handling urgent or ad hoc enquiries. Other duties include supporting programme operations and student matters. The appointee will perform any other duties as assigned by the Head of Department or the Department.

Applicants should have a Bachelor's degree, preferably with some relevant post-qualification working experience, good interpersonal and communication skills, high proficiency in both English and Chinese (Cantonese and Putonghua) and be literate in computer applications including MS Word, Excel, PowerPoint and web applications. He/she should be responsible, able to work independently, and capable of working under pressure. Relevant experience in programme administration gained in tertiary institutions is preferred. Fluency in Putonghua will be an advantage.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include the University's Voluntary Contributions to MPF Scheme or a contract-end lump sum payment (totaling up to 10% of the basic salary), leave, medical and dental benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV on or before 21 September 2026. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to <http://www.eduhk.hk/jobsopp/index.php?glang=en>.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted. The University reserves the right not to fill the position(s) advertised. Since the incumbent's work would involve contacts with persons aged under 18 and/or mentally incapacitated persons, prospective employee(s) will be required to undergo Sexual Conviction Record Check operated by the Hong Kong Police Force.

Further information about the University is available at <http://www.eduhk.hk>.

EdUHK is an Equal Opportunities Employer.

