

Research Assistant I/II (Part-time) (Ref: 2600932)
Department of Social Sciences and Policy Studies

Project Title: Strengthening Cross-Border Typhoon Disaster Management between Hong Kong and Macau: A Socio-Institutional Approach to Preparedness, Response and Recovery
[Appointment Period: 18 months]

The project "Strengthening Cross-Border Typhoon Disaster Management between Hong Kong and Macau" is investigating how socio-technical factors—including institutional cultures, risk communication practices, public perception, trust, and learning—enable or constrain the integration of smart typhoon disaster management between Hong Kong and Macau across the phases of preparedness, prevention, response, and recovery.

The applicant will be required to conduct research tasks including data collection, data analysis, literature review, and research-related duties as assigned by Principal Investigator or his delegates. There will be opportunities for manuscript writing and publications in international journal or conferences. The appointment will be for a period of 18 months.

Applicants should have (i) a Bachelor's degree or above, preferably in the area of Geography, Urban Studies, or a related field of Social Sciences; (ii) experience in NVivo, SPSS, statistical analysis, and programming; (iii) Proficiency in written English. Preference will be given to those with research experience. Applicants with lower qualifications and/or less experience will be considered for the position of Research Assistant II.
