香港教育大學
The Education University of Hong Kong

Founded in 1994 and awarded the University title in 2016, The Education University of Hong Kong (EdUHK) is a publicly funded university, dedicated to the advancement of teacher education and related disciplines through a diverse offering of academic, professional and research programmes. The University aspires to become a leading university in the Asia Pacific region and beyond, with a focus on educational and multidisciplinary research, development and innovation. We are committed to nurturing outstanding and caring educators and professionals as well as enhancing the impact of scholarship.

The University has an academic/teaching staff strength of about 460 and total student headcount of about 11,000. It has a Graduate School and three Faculties, namely, Faculty of Education and Human Development, Faculty of Humanities, and Faculty of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences, comprising 14 academic departments, as well as two Academies, Academy for Educational Development and Innovation and Academy for Applied Policy Studies and Education Futures, a number of University-level research centres and Faculty-level research and professional development centres. For more information about the University, please visit http://www.eduhk.hk.

To continue pursuing excellence in the advancement of knowledge, scholarship and innovation through high quality research, we are seeking enthusiastic and highly dedicated academics to join the University in support of its strategic development in diverse areas.

Associate Professor / Assistant Professor / Research Assistant Professor (Ref: 2600975)
Academy for Applied Policy Studies and Education Futures

The Academy for Applied Policy Studies and Education Futures (AAPSEF) is seeking an inspirational and energetic candidate to join the University and contribute to its development, with expertise in Women's Studies, Beauty and Lifestyle Studies.

Successful applicants will join the University's highly qualified scholars team and affiliate to the relevant academic department and/ or academy. The appointees will contribute to enhancing the University's research capacity and impact on the relevant strategic research field(s). Responsibilities mainly include: (i) conducting high-quality research, and generating scholarly publications or other significant research outputs; (ii) initiating and supporting research projects, and securing external research grants (such as ECS/GRF/PPR) to enhance domain impact; (iii) strengthening academic and professional networks, including collaborations with local and overseas institutions and universities; (iv) curriculum and programme development as well as programme and course management at undergraduate to postgraduate levels; (v) engaging in and leading research-related activities with colleagues and RPg students; and (vi) participating in and be an active member of the University's community.

Applicants should have a doctoral degree and/or prior degrees in relevant field(s). They should be active researchers with proven capacity and potential in research. They should be fluent in English with, preferably, some knowledge of Cantonese and/or Mandarin Chinese and the educational context of Hong Kong and/or China. Candidates with international experience would also be highly valued.

Applicants for Associate Professor should possess evidence of strong research output and publication in relevant field(s) and a strong research track record and impact. Applicants for Assistant Professor should possess evidence of scholarship, research, and publications in the relevant field(s). A knowledge of, or an area of focus on, higher education in Asia, China, or the Greater Bay Area would further be welcome.
