香港教育大學
The Education University of Hong Kong

Research Assistant I / Research Assistant II (Ref: 2600990)
Department of Special Education and Counselling

Project Title: Investigating the eating and feeding patterns of young children with weight and psychosocial problems
[Appointment Period: 12 months]

The appointee will contribute to a research project in the areas of children's mental health, physical growth, nutrition, and physical activity. The successful candidate will be expected to work in both outdoor field settings and the research office at Queen Mary Hospital or Hong Kong Children's Hospital. Occasional weekend work will be required. Responsibilities include participant recruitment, data collection, data entry and analysis, report preparation and mailing, document filing, and other duties as assigned. The appointment is expected to commence as soon as possible and may be renewed for a second year, subject to satisfactory performance and the availability of funding.

Preference will be given to applicants with experience in health or health-related research. Working experience in analyzing nutritional and dietary recall data will be advantageous.

For the post of Research Assistant I, applicants should have a Bachelor's Degree or above in food and nutritional sciences, health and physical education, early childhood education, social sciences, or a health-related discipline, with an understanding of research methods and data analysis techniques.

For the post of Research Assistant II, applicants should have at least Level 2 or equivalent or above in five subjects including Chinese Language, English Language and Mathematics in HKDSE; or Grade E (Level 2) or above in five subjects including Chinese, English (Syllabus B) and Mathematics in HKCEE or equivalent.

Applicants should have a good command of written and spoken Cantonese and be proficient in Microsoft Office applications. Strong organizational and communication skills are essential. They should also be detail-oriented, patient, empathetic, responsible, and able to work effectively both independently and as part of a team.

For enquiries about the duties of the position, please contact Dr. Rosa Wong at rswong@eduhk.hk.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include contract-end gratuity, leave, medical and dental benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV on or before 16 December 2026. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to http://www.eduhk.hk/jobsopp/index.php?glang=en.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted. The University reserves the right not to fill the position(s) advertised. Since the incumbent's work would involve contacts with persons aged under 18 and/or mentally incapacitated persons, prospective employee(s) will be required to undergo Sexual Conviction Record Check operated by the Hong Kong Police Force.

Further information about the University is available at http://www.eduhk.hk.

EdUHK is an Equal Opportunities Employer.