Department of Psychology

Project Title: Hybrid computerized executive function and social cognition training for autistic children and their parents: a two-arm, double-blind randomized controlled trial with 6-month follow-up
[Appointment Period: 6 months]

The appointee will work on a research project on a home-based executive function and social cognition training program for autistic children. He/she will support the research team in planning, conducting, and coordinating the project activities. The appointee will conduct literature review, data collection, data entry, data management and analysis, report and manuscript writing, and liaison with collaborators and schools/organizations. The initial appointment will be for a period of 6 months with the possibility of renewal subject to mutual agreement.

The applicants should have a Bachelor's Degree in psychology, cognitive neuroscience, or a related discipline; interest in brain-behavior relationships in autism; good communication, presentation, and interpersonal skills in both written and spoken English and Chinese (Cantonese); strong administrative and management skills; research knowledge and skills in using SPSS; enthusiasm, self-motivation, and the ability to work independently and under pressure. Experience with programming (e.g., E-Prime, MATLAB) and/or cognitive neuroscience methods (e.g., EEG, fNIRS) will be an asset.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. Fringe benefits include leave and outpatient medical benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV on or before 10 December 2026. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to http://www.eduhk.hk/jobsopp/index.php?glang=en.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted. The University reserves the right not to fill the position(s) advertised.
